SPACE RESCUE

You are a SPACE TRUCK driver, driving the a train-liked ship from Centaurus Galaxy to Earth.

On your way home, you went through an asteroid belt.
It's dangerous for driving and you become vigilant.

Suddenly, you notice something strange, something not asteroid but wreckage of space shuttles of the earth guard.

They are attacked by the ALIENS. They are floating in space. They need you help !

But there are still enemies here and asteroids are dangerous for the long space truck.

Be careful and try to save the all astronauts !

HELP

- * Use rocker for moving .
- * The red edge in you radar are areas the enemies control, NEVER get in !
- * Your train will become longer in rescuing, NEVER hit your self !
- * When you hit the enemy's space mines, you will lose some part of the train !
- * More enemies are coming !
